This is an electronic representation of your art designed for viewing on a computer monitor. This file is not suitable for proofing colors or screen densities. This file is intended for proofing type, color breaks and layout ONLY and has been provided by fax or email at your request. Your order will be printed using the ink colors and screen percentages specified on your original artwork file or purchase order. Color proofs that more closely represent the colors and screen densities achieved on press are available at an additional cost and take approximately 2 workdays to produce. Please contact customer service if you require a more accurate proofing method.

Ship dates can not be scheduled until after proof approval.
